

Generation of a Screw Dislocation Network in a Small Angle Twist Boundary

- This is a famous drawing (probably coming from Read) that can be found in just about any book on dislocations.
- It shows the direct superposition of two twisted cubic lattices on the left, and the formation of a screw dislocation network with perfect ($= \Sigma 1$) areas in between.

Illustration

